2025 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the holders of our ordinary shares, NIS 0.20 nominal value (the “Ordinary Shares”), in connection with the solicitation by our Board of Directors (the “Board”) of proxies for use at the 2025 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders (the “Meeting”), or at any adjournment thereof, pursuant to the accompanying Notice of 2025 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The Meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 3, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. (Israel time), at our offices located at 24 Raoul Wallenberg Street, Tel Aviv, Israel.

Throughout this Proxy Statement, we use terms such as “RADCOM,” “we,” “us,” “our,” “the Company” and “our Company” to refer to RADCOM Ltd. and terms such as “you” and “your” to refer to our shareholders.

The agenda of the Meeting will be as follows:

- (1) To re-approve, without change, our previously approved Compensation Policy;
- (2) To re-appoint Kost Forer Gabbay & Kasierer, a Member of EY Global, as our independent auditors until the next annual general meeting of shareholders, and to authorize the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors to fix their remuneration for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025;
- (3) To present and discuss our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024; and
- (4) To transact such other business as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

These proposals are described in detail in this proxy statement, which we urge you to read in its entirety. As more fully described in this proxy statement, certain shareholders may present proposals for consideration at the Meeting by submitting their proposals to the Company no later than November 5, 2025. If we determine that a shareholder proposal has been duly and timely received and is appropriate, we will publish a revised agenda in the manner set forth in this proxy statement. We are currently not aware of any other matters that will come before the Meeting. If any other matters properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, the persons designated as proxies intend to vote in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

You may elect to vote your Ordinary Shares once, either by attending the Meeting in person or by a duly executed proxy in the manners and as detailed below.

A form of proxy for use at the Meeting and a return envelope for the proxy are enclosed. For voting via telephone or the Internet, please use the phone number or URL, respectively, listed on the proxy card. You may revoke the authority granted by your execution of proxies at any time before the exercise thereof by filing with us a written notice of revocation or duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by voting in person at the Meeting. Proxies must be received no later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time fixed for the Meeting. On all matters considered at the Meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as neither a vote “for” nor “against” the matter, although they will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present.

Proxies for use at the Meeting are being solicited by our Board. Only shareholders of record as of the close of business on November 3, 2025 (the “Record Date”), will be entitled to vote at the Meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof. Proxies will be mailed to shareholders on or about October 29, 2025, and will be solicited chiefly by mail. However, certain of our officers, directors, employees and agents, none of whom will receive additional compensation in connection therewith, may solicit proxies by telephone, e-mail or other personal contact. We will bear the cost of external proxy solicitors (if any) and other costs of the solicitation of the proxies, including postage, printing and handling, and will reimburse the reasonable expenses of brokerage firms and others for forwarding material to beneficial owners of Ordinary Shares.

If your Ordinary Shares are held in “street name” meaning you are a beneficial owner with your shares held through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you will receive instructions from your bank, brokerage firm or nominee, who is the holder of record of your shares. You must follow the instructions of the holder of record in order for your shares to be voted.

OUTSTANDING VOTING SECURITIES AND QUORUM

As of October 20, 2025, we had 16,405,788 outstanding Ordinary Shares, each of which is entitled to one vote upon each of the matters to be presented at the Meeting. Two or more shareholders holding Ordinary Shares conferring in the aggregate at least one-third ($1/3$) of our voting power, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, will constitute a quorum at the Meeting. If within an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the Meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such day and at such time and place as the Chairman may determine with the consent of the holders of a majority of the voting power represented at the Meeting in person by proxy and voting on the question of adjournment. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. At such adjourned meeting, any two (2) holders of Ordinary Shares present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum.

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF SECURITIES BY CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth information with respect to the beneficial ownership of our Ordinary Shares as of October 20, 2025, by:

- each person or entity known by us to own beneficially more than 5% of our outstanding Ordinary Shares;
- each of our directors and executive officers individually; and
- all of our executive officers and directors as a group.

The beneficial ownership of Ordinary Shares is determined in accordance with the SEC rules and generally includes any Ordinary Shares over which a person exercises sole or shared voting or investment power. For purposes of the table below, we deem shares subject to options that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of October 20, 2025, and restricted share units (“RSUs”) that vest within 60 days of October 20, 2025, to be outstanding and to be beneficially owned by the person holding the options or RSUs for the purposes of computing the percentage ownership of that person, but we do not treat them as outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. The percentage of shares beneficially owned is based on 16,405,788 Ordinary Shares outstanding as of October 20, 2025.

The information presented below is based on information provided to us by the directors, executive officers, and shareholders or disclosed by any of them in public filings with the SEC. The voting rights of our major shareholders do not differ from the voting rights of other holders of our Ordinary Shares.

None of our executive officers or directors beneficially owns 1% or more of our outstanding Ordinary Shares.

As of October 20, 2025, our Ordinary Shares had a total of 13 holders of record, of which 7 were registered with addresses in the United States. We believe that the number of beneficial owners of our shares is substantially greater than the number of record holders, because a large portion of our Ordinary Shares is held of record in broker “street name”.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

For information relating to the compensation of our five most highly compensated office holders with respect to the year ended December 31, 2024, please see “Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees — B. Compensation” in our Annual Report on Form 20-F, which was filed on March 26, 2025, with the SEC.

ITEM 1 — RE-APPROVAL, WITHOUT CHANGE, OF OUR PREVIOUSLY APPROVED COMPENSATION POLICY

The Israeli Companies Law 1999 (the “Companies Law”) provides that companies incorporated under the laws of Israel, whose shares are listed for trade on a stock exchange or have been offered to the public in or outside of Israel, such as RADCOM, are required to adopt a policy governing the compensation of “Office Holders.” The Companies Law defines the term “Office Holder” of a company to include a director, the chief executive officer, the chief financial officer and any manager who is directly subordinate to the chief executive officer. Accordingly, on August 16, 2016, following the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and the approval of the Board of Directors, our shareholders approved a Compensation Policy for Executive Officers (the “Compensation Policy”). Under the Companies Law, we are required to review, update (if necessary) and approve the Compensation Policy every three years. Most recently the Compensation Policy was re-approved at our 2022 annual general meeting held in July 2022 (the “2022 AGM”) and further amended at our annual general meeting of shareholders which took place in August 2023 (the “2023 AGM”) and at our annual general meeting of shareholders which took place in October 2024 (the “2024 AGM”).

When considering the proposed Compensation Policy, our Compensation Committee and Board of Directors considered numerous factors, including the advancement of the Company’s objectives, the Company’s business plan and its long-term strategy, and creation of appropriate incentives for directors and executive officers. The Compensation Committee and the Board also considered, among other things, the Company’s risk management, size and the nature of its operations, and reviewed various data and information they deemed relevant.

The Compensation Policy is designed to promote retention and motivation of directors and executive officers, incentivize superior individuals’ excellence, align the interests of the Company’s directors and executive officers with the long-term performance of the Company and provide a risk management tool. To that end, a portion of an executive officer compensation package is targeted to reflect the Company’s short- and long-term goals, as well as the executive officer’s individual performance, while taking into account each executive’s skills, education, expertise and achievements. The Compensation Policy includes limitations on the ratio between the variable and the total compensation of an executive officer.

In this Meeting, we propose to re-approve, without change, the Compensation Policy in the form previously approved by the shareholders at our 2022 AGM, as was amended at our 2023 AGM and 2024 AGM, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, such that the Compensation Policy shall be in full force and effect for an additional period of three years, effective as of the date of the Meeting, in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Law.

Required Approval

The affirmative vote of a majority of the Ordinary Shares present, in person or by proxy, and voting on the matter is required for the re-approval of the Compensation Policy, provided that either (i) at least a majority of the Ordinary Shares voted on the matter by non-controlling shareholders or by shareholders who do not have a personal interest in the resolution, are voted in favor of the matter or (ii) the total number of Ordinary Shares of non-controlling shareholders or of shareholders who do not have a personal interest in the resolution voted against the matter does not exceed two percent of the outstanding voting power of the Company.

The Companies Law requires that each shareholder voting on this proposal indicate whether or not such person is a controlling shareholder or has a personal interest in such resolution. Under the Companies Law, a “Controlling Shareholder” for this purpose is any shareholder who has the ability to direct RADCOM’s actions (other than by means of being a director or office holder of the Company), including any shareholder holding 25% or more of the voting rights if no other shareholder owns more than 50% of the voting rights in RADCOM. A shareholder is presumed to be a Controlling Shareholder if it holds or controls, by itself or together with others, one half or more of any one of the “means of control” of a company. “Means of control” is defined as any one of the following: (i) the right to vote at a general meeting of a company, or (ii) the right to appoint directors of a company or its chief executive officer.

To the knowledge of RADCOM there is no shareholder who is a Controlling Shareholder.

A “Personal Interest” of a shareholder (i) includes a personal interest of any member of the shareholder’s family (or spouses thereof) or a personal interest of a company with respect to which the shareholder (or such family member) serves as a director or chief executive officer, owns at least 5% of the outstanding share capital or has the right to appoint a director or chief executive officer, and (ii) excludes an interest arising solely from the ownership of our Ordinary Shares. All of our directors and officers are deemed to have a Personal Interest in this matter.

To avoid confusion, every shareholder voting by means of the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction form, or via telephone or internet voting, will be deemed to confirm that such shareholder is not a Controlling Shareholder and is not a shareholder who has a Personal Interest in the resolution. If you are a Controlling Shareholder (which, as indicated above, is highly unlikely) or a shareholder who has a Personal Interest in the resolution, please notify Ms. Hadar Rahav, our Chief Financial Officer, at c/o 24 Raoul Wallenberg Street, Tel Aviv 6971920, Israel; telephone: +972-77-774-5060, or by email (hadar.rahav@radcom.com). If your shares are held in “street name” by your broker, bank or other nominee and you are a Controlling Shareholder or a shareholder who has a Personal Interest in the resolution, you should notify the Company as outlined above, and, in addition, you should advise your broker, bank or other nominee of that status, and they in turn should notify the Company as described in the preceding sentence.

Proposed Resolution

It is proposed that the following resolution be adopted at the Meeting:

“RESOLVED that the Company’s Compensation Policy, in the form attached as “Exhibit A” to the Proxy Statement, be, and the same hereby is re-approved.”

The Board of Directors recommends a vote “FOR” approval of the proposed resolution.

Tax Fees.	$ 24,568	$ 16,599
All Other Fees	0	0
Total	$ 319,400	$ 333,005

Audit fees included fees associated with the annual audit, the reviews of our quarterly financial statements, audit fees related to our internal control over financial reporting, statutory audits required internationally, consents and assistance with and review of documents filed with the SEC.

Audit related fees included fees associated with the annual report for the Israel Innovation Authority and accounting consultations regarding the accounting treatment of matters that occur in the regular course of business, implications of new accounting pronouncements, acquisitions and other accounting issues that occur from time to time.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the Ordinary Shares present, in person or by proxy, and voting on the matter is required for the approval of the re-appointment of our independent auditors and the authorization of our Audit Committee to fix their remuneration.

The Board recommends a vote “FOR” approval of the proposed resolution.

ITEM 3 — REVIEW OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2024

Our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, are not a part of the proxy solicitation material, but were filed together with our Annual Report on Form 20-F, which was filed on March 26, 2025, with the SEC, and is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and on our website at www.radcom.com. We will hold a discussion with respect to the financial statements at the Meeting. This Item will not involve a vote by the shareholders.

However, if any other matters are properly presented to the Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote upon such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

RADCOM LTD.
AMENDED AND RESTATED DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS COMPENSATION POLICY

As re-approved on December 3, 2025

A. Overview and Objectives

1. Introduction

The purpose of this document is to describe the overall compensation strategy of RADCOM Ltd. (“RADCOM” or the “Company”) for its Executive Officers and Directors, and to provide guidelines for setting compensation of its Executive Officers and Directors (this “Compensation Policy” or “Policy”), in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Law, 1999 (the “Companies Law”).

Compensation is a key component of RADCOM’s overall human capital strategy to attract, retain, reward, and motivate highly skilled individuals who will enhance RADCOM’s value and otherwise assist RADCOM to reach its business and financial long term goals. Accordingly, the structure of this Policy is established to tie the compensation for each Executive Officer to RADCOM’s goals and performance.

For purposes of this Policy, “Executive Officers” shall mean “Office Holders” as such term is defined in the Companies Law, excluding, unless otherwise expressly indicated herein, RADCOM’s Directors.

Under no event shall the Company be deemed by this Policy, as being obligated to provide and/or grant any compensation component mentioned hereunder, to any of its Executive Officers and/or Directors; this Policy shall apply to compensation agreements and arrangements which will be approved after the date on which this Compensation Policy is approved by the shareholders of RADCOM.

The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors of RADCOM shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Policy from time to time, as required by the Companies Law.

2. Objectives

RADCOM’s objectives and goals in setting this Compensation Policy are to attract, motivate and retain highly skilled and experienced personnel who will provide leadership for RADCOM’s success and enhance shareholder value, while supporting a performance culture that is based on merit, and differentiates and rewards excellent performance in the long term, and recognizes RADCOM’s values. To that end, this Policy is designed, among others:

- 2.1. To closely align the interests of the Directors and Executive Officers with those of Company’s stockholders in order to enhance stockholder value;
- 2.2. To provide the Executive Officers with a structured and balanced compensation package, including competitive salaries and benefits, performance-motivating cash and equity incentive programs; and
- 2.3. To provide appropriate awards for superior individual and corporate performance.

3. Compensation structure and instruments

- 3.1. Compensation instruments under this Compensation Policy may include the following:
 - 3.1.1. Base salary;
 - 3.1.2. Benefits and perquisites;
 - 3.1.3. Cash bonuses;
 - 3.1.4. Equity based compensation; and
 - 3.1.5. Retirement and termination of service arrangements.

- 3.2. A change in the compensation package of an Executive Officer which reports directly and/or indirectly to the CEO, which results in an increase of such Executive Officer's total compensation by no more than an amount equal to two (2) monthly salaries, may be approved solely by the CEO, provided all elements of compensation of such Executive Officer will continue to meet the requirements of the Compensation Policy.
- 3.3. A change in the compensation package of the CEO, which results in an increase of the CEO's total compensation by no more than ten percent (10%) per annum, may be approved by the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors, provided all elements of compensation of the CEO will continue to meet the requirements of the Compensation Policy.

4. Overall compensation — Ratio between fixed and variable compensation

- 4.1. This Policy aims to balance the mix of Fixed Compensation (base salary, benefits and perquisites) and Variable Compensation (cash bonuses and equity-based compensation) in order to, among other things, appropriately incentivize Executive Officers to meet Company's goals while considering Company's management of business risks;
- 4.2. In light of the foregoing, the table below reflects the ratio between Fixed and Variable Compensation permitted under this Policy (per annum basis):

	Range for % of fixed compensation out of the total compensation	Range for % of variable compensation out of the total compensation(*)
CEO	20% – 100%	0% – 80%
Non-Sales Executives	20% – 100%	0% – 80%
Sales Executives	15% – 100%	0% – 85%

(*) Variable compensation includes annual bonuses and equity compensation. The variable component in regard of the equity compensation reflects the value at the date of grant.

5. Inter-Company Compensation Ratio

- 5.1. In the process of composing this Policy, RADCOM has examined the ratio between overall compensation of the Executive Officers and the average and median salary of the other employees of RADCOM (including employee-contractors and agency contractors, if any) (the “Ratio”).
- 5.2. The possible ramifications of the Ratio on the work environment in RADCOM were examined in order to ensure that levels of executive compensation, as compared to the overall workforce will not have a negative impact on work relations in RADCOM.
- 5.3. The following is the current compensation Ratio: overall compensation of each executive, including the CEO, is not more than ten (10) times the average (and median) of the overall compensation of the other headquarter employees.

B. Base Salary, Benefits and Perquisites

6. Base Salary

- 6.1. The base salary varies between Executive Officers, and is individually determined according to the past performance, educational background, prior business experience, qualifications, role and the business responsibilities of the Executive Officer.
- 6.2. Since a competitive base salary is essential to Company's ability to attract and retain highly skilled professionals, RADCOM will seek to establish a base salary that is competitive with the base salaries paid to Executive Officers of a peer group of companies, while considering, among others, RADCOM's size and field of operation. To that end, RADCOM shall utilize as a reference comparative market data and practices.

7. Benefits and Perquisites

- 7.1. The following benefits and perquisites may be granted to the Executive Officers, provided that to the extent requirements under applicable laws impose a greater benefit than set forth below, the legal requirement shall apply:
 - 7.1.1. Vacation of up to twenty-four (24) days per annum;
 - 7.1.2. Sick days of up to thirty (30) days per annum;
 - 7.1.3. Convalescence pay according to applicable law;
 - 7.1.4. Monthly remuneration for a study fund, as allowed by applicable law and with reference to the practice in peer group companies;
 - 7.1.5. Company shall contribute on behalf of the Executive Officer to an insurance policy or a pension fund, as allowed by applicable law and with reference to the practice in peer group companies;
 - 7.1.6. Company may contribute on behalf of the Executive Officer towards work disability insurance, as allowed by applicable law and with reference to the practice in peer group companies; and
 - 7.1.7. Company may sponsor Private Health Insurance for the Executive Officer, in accordance with the Company's policy and agreement with the insurance company.
- 7.2. Company may offer additional benefits and perquisites to the Executive Officers, which will be comparable to customary market practices, such as: company cellular phone benefits; company car benefits; refund of business travel including per diem when traveling and other business related expenses, insurances, etc.; provided however, that such additional benefits and perquisites shall be determined in accordance with Company's policies and procedures.

C. Cash Bonuses

8. The Objective

- 8.1. Compensation in the form of cash bonus(es) is an important element in aligning Executive Officers' compensation with Company's objectives and business goals in the long-term, such that both individual performance and overall company success are rewarded.
- 8.2. Company's policy is to allow annual cash bonuses, which may be awarded to the Executive Officers upon the attainment of pre-set periodical objectives and personal targets, pursuant to distinguishable terms for three Executive Officers' populations, as reflected in Section 9 below.
- 8.3. The performance targets payable to each Executive Officer (other than the CEO) shall be presented and recommended by Company's Chief Executive Officer and reviewed and approved by the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors.

Examples of performance targets that may be considered include:

- financial results;
- sales and booking results;
- efficiency metrics;
- internal and external customer satisfaction;
- enterprise value;
- execution of specific projects; and
- attainment of milestones.

9. Annual Bonus

CEO

- 9.1. The CEO shall be eligible to receive, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors, an annual bonus (the “Annual Bonus”) not to exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the CEO’s annual base salary (the “Maximum Annual Bonus”) which shall be based on two components as follows:
- 9.1.1. A “Measurable” component, including all over-achievement, of up to one hundred percent (100%) of the annual base salary. This component, will be based on the measurable results of the Company, as compared to RADCOM’s budget and work plan for the relevant year. Such measurable criteria will be determined at the commencement of each fiscal year (or start of employment, as applicable), and may include (but is not limited to) any one or more of the following criteria: profit, revenue, booking, cost reduction, other performance objectives, etc.
- 9.1.2. A “Discretionary” component of up to the lesser of (i) fifty percent (50%) of the CEO’s annual base salary, or (ii) the difference between the Maximum Annual Bonus and the measurable bonus earned pursuant to Section 9.1.1 above. This component will take into account tangible and intangible performance factors where it is the Compensation Committee’s and Board of Directors’ determination that the measurable portion of the CEO’s annual bonus does not sufficiently reflect the CEO’s relative contribution to the Company, provided, however, that the Discretionary portion of the CEO annual bonus shall not exceed an amount that equals to three monthly salaries.
- 9.2. The CEO shall be eligible to receive, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors, one or more bonuses following the occurrence of certain extraordinary events (the “Extraordinary Events Bonuses”) not to exceed in the aggregate, and subject to the limitation set forth in Section 9.3, seventy-five percent (75%) of the CEO’s annual base salary. Such bonuses may be awarded following the occurrence of transactions or extraordinary events such as fund raising, mergers and acquisitions (whether the Company is the buyer or being sold), or a change of control (each, an “Extraordinary Event”). For purposes hereof, a “Change of Control” shall mean any transaction or series of transactions following which any one entity or person holds or controls, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the Company’s outstanding shares.
- The Extraordinary Events Bonuses under this Section 9.2 may be payable in immediately vesting equity based on the value at the date of bonus determination. Such equity shall not be deemed part of the equity based compensation as set forth in Section D below for purposes of the limitation set forth in Section 12.3.
- 9.3. The overall aggregate bonus of the CEO, as a sum of the Annual Bonus and the Extraordinary Events Bonuses shall not exceed one hundred and fifty percent (150%) of the CEO’s annual base salary in any given year.

Executive Officers other than the CEO

- 9.4. For Executive Officers, except the CEO, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors will have full discretion to determine the annual bonus calculation and increase the final bonus payout based, among other things, additional considerations relevant to the performance and objectives of the Company and the relevant Executive Officer including non-measurable criteria.
- 9.5. The annual bonus of the Executive Officers, as well as the Extraordinary Events Bonus, will not exceed the following amounts:
- 9.5.1 The annual bonus for Non-Sales Executive Officers, except the CEO, will not exceed the amount of eighty percent (80%) of their base annual salary;
- 9.5.2 The annual bonus for Sales Executive Officers, except the CEO, will not exceed the amount of one hundred and fifty percent (150%) of their base annual salary;

- 9.5.3 Executive Officers, except the CEO, may be entitled to an additional bonus for Extraordinary Events, and for fulfilling an additional temporal role in the Company, the amount of which shall not exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of their annual salary (the “Executive Extraordinary Events Bonus”); and
- 9.5.4 The overall aggregate bonus payable to the Executive Officers, except the CEO, i.e., the sum of the annual bonus, and the Executive Extraordinary Events Bonus, shall not exceed one hundred and fifty percent (150%) of the Executive Officers’ annual base salary in any given year.

10. Compensation Recovery (“Clawback”)

- 10.1. In the event of an accounting restatement, RADCOM shall be entitled to recover from Executive Officers bonus compensation in the amount of the excess over what would have been paid under the accounting restatement, with a two-year look-back. The compensation recovery will not apply to former Executive Officers of RADCOM.
- 10.2. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, the compensation recovery will not be triggered in the event of a financial restatement required due to changes in the applicable financial reporting standards.
- 10.3. Nothing in this Section 10.3 derogates from any other “clawback” or similar provisions regarding disgorging of profits imposed on Executive Officers by virtue of applicable securities laws.

D. Equity Based Compensation

11. The Objective

- 11.1. The equity based compensation for RADCOM’s Directors and Executive Officers is designed in a manner consistent with the underlying objectives in determining the base salary and the annual bonus, with its main objectives being to enhance the alignment between the Directors’ and Executive Officers’ interests with the long term interests of RADCOM and its shareholders, and to strengthen the retention and the motivation of Directors and Executive Officers in the long term. In addition, since equity based awards are to be usually structured to vest over a long term, their incentive value to recipients is aligned with longer-term strategic plans.
- 11.2. The equity based compensation offered by RADCOM is intended to be in a form of stock options and/or other equity forms, such as RSUs, in accordance with the Company’s equity compensation policies and programs in place from time to time.

12. General guidelines for the grant of awards

- 12.1. The equity based compensation shall be granted from time to time and be individually determined and awarded according to the performance, educational background, prior business experience, qualifications, role and the personal responsibilities of the Executive Officer.
- 12.2. Vesting and other terms for equity based compensation shall be subject to the terms of the Company’s then-applicable option plan and as permitted in such plan.
- 12.3. The fair market value of the equity based compensation for the Executive Officers will be determined according to acceptable valuation practices at the time of grant. Such fair market value, as examined at the time of grant as aforesaid, shall not exceed the amount of two (2) annual salaries per year of vesting on a linear basis.

13. Acceleration and exercise of awards

- 13.1. The Board may, following approval by the Compensation Committee, extend the period of time for which an award is to remain exercisable.
- 13.2. The Board may, following approval by the Compensation Committee, make provisions with respect to the acceleration of the vesting period of any Executive Officer’s, Directors’ and Chairman equity awards, including, without limitation, in connection with a corporate transaction involving a change of control.

E. Retirement and Termination of Service Arrangements

14. Advance notice

RADCOM may provide an Executive Officer and the Executive Chairman a prior notice of termination of up to six (6) months, during which such Executive Officer and the Executive Chairman may be entitled to all of the compensation elements, and to the continuation of vesting of his or her options and RSUs. During the advance notice period such Executive Officer and the Executive Chairman may be required to continue providing services to RADCOM.

15. Transition period

RADCOM may provide an additional transition period during which the Executive Officer will be entitled to up to an additional 3 months of continued base salary, benefits and perquisites beyond the Advance Notice period described above. Additionally, the Board may, following approval by the Compensation Committee, approve to continue the vesting and/or the exercise eligibility of such Executive Officer's options during such transition period. The transition period shall be conditioned on terms of service of at least two (2) years, on the employment relationship not being terminated with the Executive Officer for cause, and will be determined based on some or all of the following considerations: the period of service or employment of the Executive Officer (subject to as mentioned above, terms of service not being less than two (2) years), service or employment terms during the Executive Officer's service or employment period, RADCOM's performance during such period, Executive Officer's contribution to the achievement of RADCOM's objectives and performance and the particular circumstances of termination of employment or service.

16. Additional Retirement and Termination Benefits

RADCOM may provide additional retirement and terminations benefits and payments as may be required by applicable law (e.g., mandatory severance pay under Israeli labor laws), or which will be comparable to customary market practices and which in such event, shall not exceed in value the equivalent of six (6) monthly base salaries of the Executive Officer.

F. Exculpation, Indemnification and Insurance

17. Exculpation

Except as may be otherwise approved from time to time by the shareholders, RADCOM shall not exempt its Directors and Executive Officers from the duty of care.

18. Indemnification

RADCOM may indemnify its Directors and Executive Officers to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, for any liability and expense that may be imposed on the Executive Officer, as provided in the Indemnity Agreement between such individuals and RADCOM, all subject to applicable law.

19. Insurance

- 19.1. RADCOM will provide "Directors and Officers Insurance" (the "Insurance Policy") for its Directors and Executive Officers, provided that such engagement in an Insurance Policy is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's profitability, assets or liabilities.
- 19.2. The maximum aggregate coverage for the Insurance Policy will be up to Forty Million U.S. dollars (US $40,000,000), as may be increased or decreased from time to time by the shareholders.
- 19.3. The maximum aggregate annual premium and deductibles will be in market terms at the time the Insurance Policy is purchased and will not impact the Company.
- 19.4. The Company may also purchase Insurance Policy with respect to specific events, such as public offerings, or with respect to periods of time following which the then existing insurance coverage ceases to apply, such as "run-off" coverage in connection with a change in control; provided that the premium and deductibles therefor will be in market terms at the time the Insurance Policy is purchased and will not impact the Company.

G. Directors Compensation

20. The members of Board may be entitled to remuneration composed of cash compensation, as well as equity-based compensation, in consideration and as an incentive for their contribution and efforts as directors of the Company. Such compensation may be increased in case of the chairman, membership in the Board, membership in committees, chairmanship of committees or in the case of a director with special expertise (as the Board may determine), or in other cases as the Compensation Committee and the Board may decide. In addition, the members of the Board may also be entitled to refund of reasonable expenses relating to discharging such director's obligations, including travel, stay and lodging, in accordance with applicable policy the Company may adopt.

25. In addition to the monthly salary, the Executive Chairman shall be entitled to an annual bonus with regard to special activities, such as mergers and acquisitions, fund raising and cost reduction targets.
