Form: 40-F

On March 25, 2026, RADCOM Ltd. (the “Company”) received a formal shareholders’ request letter from Value Base Ltd. and Michael and Klil Zisapel (collectively, the “Proposing Shareholders”), who together beneficially own approximately 19.3% of the Company’s outstanding ordinary shares. Pursuant to Section 63(b)(2) of the Israeli Companies Law, 5759-1999, and Article 39 of the Company’s Amended and Restated Articles of Association (the “Articles”), the Proposing Shareholders demanded that the Board of Directors (the “Board”) convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company’s shareholders (the “Extraordinary Meeting”) to consider certain proposed changes to the composition and governance of the Board.

Following receipt of the request, the Company reviewed and evaluated the Proposing Shareholders’ proposals. The Board engaged in direct and extensive dialogue with the Proposing Shareholders, consulted with the Company’s largest institutional shareholder and other key stakeholders, and considered the appropriate path forward for the Company and its shareholders, all as part of the directors’ fiduciary duties and to ensure that the perspectives of the Company’s broader shareholder base were carefully considered. Having completed that process, including good-faith efforts to reach a negotiated resolution which did not result in an agreement, the Board has determined to convene an Extraordinary Meeting in accordance with the Proposing Shareholders’ demand and applicable Israeli law.

Nature of the Process

Please note that this is not a contested proxy situation. The parties share a common interest in achieving what is best for RADCOM and its shareholders, and the Board does not anticipate that this process will result in a contentious or costly proxy contest. The Company will present all matters to shareholders in a transparent manner consistent with applicable law; however, it does not intend to engage in proxy solicitation activities or incur the significant expenses typically associated with a contested shareholder meeting.

The Board is committed to conducting the Extraordinary Meeting in an efficient, orderly, and cost-effective manner that minimizes disruption to the Company’s business and operations. Shareholders should not expect this process to be a distraction from RADCOM’s continued execution of its strategic and operational priorities.

RADCOM enters this process from a position of strength. The Company delivered record revenue and record operating margins in 2025, having increased the Company’s net cash by $15 million in 2025 and increasing the Company’s net cash position to approximately $110 million as of December 31, 2025. The Company continues to execute on its 5G network intelligence strategy, which the Board believes represents a leading capability in its domain. The Board is confident that RADCOM’s business fundamentals remain sound and that the Company is well positioned to continue creating long-term shareholder value regardless of the outcome of the Extraordinary Meeting.

Extraordinary Meeting Details

The Extraordinary Meeting is expected to be held on or around May 20, 2026. The Notice and Proxy Statement with respect to the Meeting are attached to this Form 6-K as Exhibit 99.1, and the Proxy Card is attached as Exhibit 99.2.

The agenda for the Extraordinary Meeting is expected to include the following items as proposed by the Proposing Shareholders:

1. An amendment to the Company’s Articles of Association to reduce the maximum number of directors on the Board
2. An amendment to the Company’s Articles of Association regarding the election of directors at general meetings
3. An amendment to the Company’s Articles of Association regarding the tenure of directors appointed by the Board prior to an Extraordinary Meeting
4. The removal of five currently serving members of the Board
5. The election of three new directors to the Board
6. The approval of compensation, indemnification, and insurance for incoming directors

Board Statement

The Board wishes to be clear that the Proposing Shareholders are solely responsible for the content of their proposals.

The Board approached the Proposing Shareholders' proposals in the same manner it approaches all matters — with the best interests of RADCOM and all of its shareholders as its primary consideration. The Board engaged in direct dialogue with Value Base Ltd. and the Zisapel family and consulted with the Company's largest institutional shareholder and other key stakeholders. Those discussions, while substantive, did not result in a mutually agreeable resolution regarding Board composition. Having exhausted good-faith efforts toward a negotiated outcome, the Board determined that convening the Extraordinary Meeting in accordance with applicable law and the Proposing Shareholders' demand is the appropriate course of action for all shareholders. The Board remains committed to conducting the Extraordinary Meeting in an efficient, orderly, and cost-effective manner.

The Board believes that it currently has the right composition to continue to lead the Company to success, and further that accepting the Proposing Shareholders' demands is unlikely to result in a better Board composition. In addition, the Board cannot, and is in no position to endorse the director candidates proposed by the Proposing Shareholders and due to these reasons the Board recommends to the Company's shareholders to vote AGAINST the proposals included in the attached proxy statement.

PROXY STATEMENT

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

On March 25, 2026, the Proposing Shareholders demanded that the Company's Board of Directors call an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of the Company in accordance with Section 63(b)(2) of the Companies Law, Regulation 7A of the Regulations, and Article 39 of the Articles, no later than April 6, 2026.

In accordance with the provisions of regulations promulgated under the Companies Law, because the Proposing Shareholders hold in the aggregate more than 10% of the Company's issued and outstanding ordinary shares, we are required to convene a special meeting of shareholders upon their request.

Under Section 63(c) of the Companies Law, a board of directors is required to convene a special meeting within twenty-one (21) days from the date the Demand was delivered to it. The Meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 20, 2026, at 4:00 p.m. (Israel time), at the offices of our Israeli counsel, Gornitzky & Co., located at 20 HaHarash Street, Tel Aviv, Israel.

Throughout this Proxy Statement, we use terms such as "RADCOM," "we," "us," "our," "the Company" and "our Company" to refer to RADCOM Ltd. and terms such as "you" and "your" to refer to our shareholders.

The agenda of the Meeting will be as follows:

- (1) To approve the Proposing Shareholders' proposal to amend Article 38 of the Articles;
- (2) To approve the Proposing Shareholders' proposal to amend Article 39 of the Articles;
- (3) To approve the Proposing Shareholders' proposal to amend Article 41 of the Articles;
- (4) To approve the Proposing Shareholders' proposal to dismiss five (5) of the Company's directors from office;
- (5) Subject to the approval of Items 2 and 4, to approve the Proposing Shareholders' proposal to elect three (3) new directors in three (3) of the resulting vacancies;
- (6) To approve the Proposing Shareholders' proposal to approve compensation, exemption, indemnification, and insurance arrangements for the individuals proposed to be elected as directors in Proposal 5; and

These proposals are described in detail in this proxy statement, which we urge you to read in its entirety. As more fully described in this proxy statement, certain shareholders may present proposals for consideration at the Meeting by submitting their proposals to the Company no later than April 23, 2026. If we determine that a shareholder proposal has been duly and timely received and is appropriate, we will publish a revised agenda in the manner set forth in the proxy statement. We are currently not aware of any other matters that will come before the Meeting. If any other matters properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, the persons designated as proxies intend to vote in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

You may elect to vote your Ordinary Shares once, either by attending the Meeting in person or by a duly executed proxy in the manners and as detailed below.

A form of proxy for use at the Meeting and a return envelope for the proxy are enclosed. For voting via telephone or the Internet, please use the phone number or URL, respectively, listed on the proxy card. You may revoke the authority granted by your execution of proxies at any time before the exercise thereof by filing with us a written notice of revocation or duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by voting in person at the Meeting. Proxies must be received no later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time fixed for the Meeting. On all matters considered at the Meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as neither a vote “for” nor “against” the matter, although they will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present.

Only shareholders of record as of the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to vote at the Meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof. Proxies will be mailed to shareholders on or about April 23, 2026.

If your Ordinary Shares are held in “street name” meaning you are a beneficial owner with your shares held through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you will receive instructions from your bank, brokerage firm or nominee, who is the holder of record of your shares. You must follow the instructions of the holder of record in order for your shares to be voted.

OUTSTANDING VOTING SECURITIES AND QUORUM

As of April 8, 2026, we had 16,738,377 outstanding Ordinary Shares, each of which is entitled to one vote upon each of the matters to be presented at the Meeting. Two or more shareholders holding Ordinary Shares conferring in the aggregate at least one-third (1/3) of our voting power, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, will constitute a quorum at the Meeting. As this Meeting is convened upon the Proposing Shareholders' requisition under Section 63(b)(2) of the Companies Law, Article 26(b) of the Articles provides that if a quorum is not present within one hour from the time appointed for the Meeting, the Meeting shall be dissolved and not adjourned.

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF SECURITIES BY CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth information with respect to the beneficial ownership of our Ordinary Shares as of April 8, 2026, by:

- each person or entity known by us to own beneficially more than 5% of our outstanding Ordinary Shares;
- each of our directors and executive officers individually; and
- each of our executive officers and directors as a group.

The beneficial ownership of Ordinary Shares is determined in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) rules and generally includes any Ordinary Shares over which a person exercises sole or shared voting or investment power. For purposes of the table below, we deem shares subject to options that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of April 8, 2026, and restricted share units (“RSUs”) that vest within 60 days of April 8, 2026, to be outstanding and to be beneficially owned by the person holding the options or RSUs for the purposes of computing the percentage ownership of that person, but we do not treat them as outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. The percentage of shares beneficially owned is based on 16,738,377 Ordinary Shares outstanding as of April 8, 2026.

The information presented below is based on information provided to us by the directors, executive officers, and shareholders or disclosed by any of them in public filings with the SEC. The voting rights of our major shareholders do not differ from the voting rights of other holders of our Ordinary Shares.

None of our executive officers or directors beneficially owns 1% or more of our outstanding Ordinary Shares.

As of April 8, 2026, our Ordinary Shares had a total of 13 holders of record, of which 7 were registered with addresses in the United States. We believe that the number of beneficial owners of our shares is substantially greater than the number of record holders, because a large portion of our Ordinary Shares is held of record in broker “street name”.
